

Gernsback Award
for
Clinical Innovation in Telemedicine
2007
Criteria for Nominations

The winner of the Gernsback Award will be an individual innovator and problem solver who has:

- Made a significant contribution to operational telemedicine.
- Improved the access or delivery of health care using telemedicine.
- Removed roadblocks to the practice of telemedicine.
- Changed policy by quietly practicing telemedicine.

The winner of the Gernsback Award will not be a researcher or inventor, but a practitioner.
